

The Church of St. Andrew's Woolaston will be open on Monday 24th December (Christmas Eve) from 10.00am until 12midday for anyone from the village who wishes to place flowers in church in memory of a loved one who is buried elsewhere and the family are unable to visit the grave.

At Christmas, many churches have displays of Poinsettias in memory of loved ones, if you would prefer to display a potted plant.

There will be a few vases available for flowers, but if you wish to bring your own, it will be returned to you after the festive season.

